

Parenting Plan of Discipleship (13-16 years old)

Expectations:	Blessings	Consequences
Integrity (Character Trait)  We Expect Honesty About Your Homework Status (The specific expectation)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You Gain The Trust Of Your Family,</li> <li>• We Enjoy Communicating With You,</li> <li>• God Is Please Through Your Words, And</li> <li>• We Will Let You Have 1 Hour More Of Screen Time Within The Next Day.</li> <li>• You can go out with friends on weekend.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lose The Trust Of Your Family,</li> <li>• It's Difficult For Others To Communicate With You,</li> <li>• God Is Dishonored, And</li> <li>• You Lose 1 Hour Of Screen Time Over The Next Day.</li> <li>• Cannot spend time with friends one day this weekend</li> </ul>
Self-Control (Character Trait):  Turn in your cell phone before going to bed. (The specific expectation)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are not distracted while sleeping,</li> <li>• Clear expectations to your friends,</li> <li>• You continue to be entrusted more time with phone, and</li> <li>• You will receive your allowance this week.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are distracted instead of sleeping,</li> <li>• Your friends don't have clear expectations of what you're doing or if you're ignoring them,</li> <li>• You will lose one hour the next day of using your phone, and</li> <li>• You will not receive your allowance this week.</li> </ul>

Character Traits = What are the character traits that your expectations are promoting?

Expectations = What Mom and Dad specifically expect of their child. Be specific within reason as it corresponds to age.

Blessings = Ways that God, Mom, and Dad will bless your honorable and obedient behavior (Eph. 6:1-3).

Consequences = Both natural and intentional ways that God, Mom, and Dad will let you experience the consequences of your actions. These consequences are intended to restore you to a place of honoring and obeying.